Discussion of Next Domain Focus: Closed Loop Referrals & Care Coordination

Politico Morning eHealth Tweet Thread of the day on 10/2/18

Thread

@lisabari

Even if you want to believe that providers aren't actively trying to harm patients, what happens when you go to see a specialist, get tests that would result in the need for an immediate intervention, but there's no follow up? The data lives in a silo, no one is alerted.

Lisa Bari @lisabari · 1d

This is a trivial issue, based on the technology. The simplest thing, barring a national HIE, would just be for the specialist to send a direct message to the PCP with the information, as well as the patient. But it rarely, if ever, happens.

Lisa Bari @lisabari · 1d

Of course the specialist is on EHR 1, the PCP on EHR 2 (instance 1), the urgent care clinic on EHR 2 (instance 2), and none of these systems are exchanging data. This experience x 1000000 every single day.
